

TRAVEL TIPS from TheGoodTourist

Responsible Travel – Fun & Exciting & Instructive

TRAVEL TIPS FROM FIVE CONTINENTS

Africa - America - Asia - Europe - Oceania

RHINOCEROS SANCTUARY IN BOTSWANA

The Khama Rhino Sanctuary Trust is a community based wildlife project, established in 1992 to assist in saving the vanishing rhino, restore an area formerly teeming with wildlife to its previous natural state and provide economic benefits to the local Botswana community through tourism and the sustainable use of natural resources.

READ MORE: www.khamarhinosanctuary.com

BIRDING AND NATURE TOURS IN BAHAMAS

For the nature lover, this is an excellent way to experience the island away from the crowds. Enjoy the birds, butterflies and the native flora, learn about local bush medicine and visit some historic sites. Bahamas Outdoors offer tours with just a few people in the group. Nature tours by bicycle are also available.

READ MORE: www.bahamasoutdoors.com

COMMUNITY ECO-TOURISM IN BANGLADESH

With Bangladesh Eco-tours you'll get unique cultural learning opportunities by staying at village home stays in the hill tribe regions. This only eco or cultural tour group in the country customizes adventures with an emphasis on true people-to-people exchanges, travelling in very small groups of two to six people to minimize impact on the traditional cultures and the environment.

READ MORE: www.bangladeshecotours.com

EXPLORE THE LITTLE-VISITED ALBANIA!

Albania has been isolated for a long time which makes it fascinating in many ways as both nature and culture are very much preserved. Join a walking tour through villages and forested mountains. See remains of past civilisations as far back as the early Illyrian tribe. Tours of the company Explore are carried out with responsible travel principles. For instance, they try to ensure so that local people benefit from tourism; they use family-run hotels where possible, and they minimise impacts on the environment by such as travelling in small groups.

READ MORE: www.explore.co.uk/RegionSearchResults?Region=9&Country=3640

THE OLDEST LIVING CULTURE IN AUSTRALIA

Join an exclusive invitation to visit the remote Pitjantjatjara Lands and Musgrave Ranges for a cultural immersion experience exploring the Aboriginal Songline stories of the creation ancestors. With your Anangu guides, enjoy the beauty and serenity of the arid desert environment to see how work, song, dance, storytelling and art are truly integrated in a living culture that is many thousands of years old. Desert Tracks is wholly owned and operated by the Pitjantjatjara People of Central Australia.

READ MORE: www.deserttracks.com.au

Spread this newsletter to your friends!

Subscribe or unsubscribe here: www.thegoodtourist.com/newsletter